

Brief Resume, Barry Percy-Smith

Prof. Barry Percy-Smith is Professor of Childhood, Youth and Participatory Practice and Director of the Centre for Applied Childhood, Youth and Family Research at the University of Huddersfield, United Kingdom. He is an internationally recognized scholar in the fields of childhood studies, youth participation, participatory practice, and action research. With over three decades of academic, research and consultancy experience, he has made significant contributions to advancing participatory approaches involving children and young people in policy, research, and community development.